U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On March 6, 2023, Mr. Wiltshire began a term of reimposed supervision after having been adjudged guilty of violation of supervised release in February 2023. He reported to the probation office upon his release and explained that he struggled with substance abuse. Mr. Wiltshire was prescribed suboxone during his term of incarceration; however, he was released without medication from the Essex County Jail. Mr. Wiltshire was instructed by a senior probation officer to report to the closest emergency room to which he would be provided a limited supply of suboxone. An instant drug test collected on March 6, 2023, resulted positive for heroin and fentanyl. Mr. Wiltshire admitted to the use of illegal substances prior to his release from the Essex County jail. On April 20, 2023, Mr. Wiltshire tested positive for cocaine, opiates, and fentanyl. He advised that he was complying with the prescribed suboxone; however, relapsed the week of a hearing for a pending case in Georgia. Mr. Wiltshire was warned against consuming illegal substances while taking suboxone, indicating that it can be hazardous.

Mr. Wiltshire appears motivated to obtain sobriety and has taken the initiative to seek a treatment facility that he feels comfortable with. He is currently attending New Direction intense outpatient program with cooccurring mental health treatment. This officer spoke with his counselor, Mr. Michael Jackson, who reported that Mr. Wiltshire does not require detoxification at this time; however, he will continue to monitor his progress and drug use through random urine screens and attendance. Mr. Wiltshire meets with a mental health professional once a week and attends group meetings three times per week. Mr. Jackson advised that Mr. Wiltshire will begin using Vivitrol to assist with relapse prevention beginning on May 15, 2023.

The U.S. Probation Office will continue to monitor Mr. Wiltshire's substance use with random urine screens, obtain monthly progress reports from New Direction, and notify the court of any additional noncompliance. We are respectfully requesting no action be taken against Mr. Wiltshire at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
